Bishop J. C. Granberry Presided-Encouraging Reports from the Nashville Publishing House_Church Work,

DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 22,-Special .-The one hundredth and eleventh annual session of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South opened in the Main-Street church here this morning at 9:30. Bishop Granberry presided.

Danville has opened wide her hospitable arms and homes, and said, "Come in." The celebrities of Richmond and vicinity are all on hand. Bishop Granberry, the Christian scholar: Dr. Sledd, the theolo gian and exegete; Dr. Tudor, the mellifluous rhetorician; Dr. Whitehead, the in carnate memory and "Discipline;" Dr. Brown, the man of humor and mance; and but one face is missing—Dr. P. A. Peterson, expostor of Trinity, Richmo, d. After religious services, conducted the Bishop, the roll was called and Par nducted by Whitehead, S. S. Lambeth and Ernes Stevens were elected secretaries. A con nunication was submitted from the pub lishing house at Nashville, Tenn., showing a gratifying exhibit. The general Sunday school reports show an average increase in scholars, ranging from 21,000 to 35,000 The circulation of Sunday school periodicals exceeds Sunday school population by over $0,000 copies, showing that maga-gines to that number are used outside the bounds of the denomination.

The Senior Quarterly and President J. H. Carlisle's "Notes" are translated into the Spanish language, and spread over Mexico. The Epworth League is becoming more and more of a power. Rev. White of the Moffett Memorial Baptist church North Danville, and Revs. Brooks, Ware Brauer, and others of the North Carolina Methodist Conference, were introduced to the audience by the Bishop.

In answer to minute question 85, the names of the following superannuated preachers were called, their characters passed, and they were referred to Committee on Conference Relations, except S. S. Lambeth, E. M. Jordan, and J. R. Sturgiss, who have recovered their health sufficiently to take work again, viz.: J. B. Laurens, A. M. Hall, J. A. Riddick, J. J. Edwards, R. N. Crooks, John McClelland, W. A. Robinson, H. T. Bacon, F. J. Boggs, W. A. Crocker, J. B. Dey, D. P. Wills, J. R. Waggener, T. P. Wise, J. F. Bran-nin, T. J. Bayton, E. P. Wilson, D. M.

The following were continued on the supernumerary list and their characters passed: Revs. W. H. Camper, T. H. Early, H. C. Bowles, B. F. Smith, J. W. Bledsoe. The latter, a former pastor of Trinity and Park Place churches, Richmond, regretted that his health, while would not permit him to take

The following active thinisters were called, their characters passed, and their work reviewed: W. V. Tudor, G. H. Ray, W. A. Langhorn, H. P. Mitchell, McD. Rucker, R. B. Beadles, W. E. Bullard, W. G. Boggs, W. F. Davis, R. M. Chand-Her, J. J. Lafferty, A. G. Brown, R. N. Siedd, R. T. Wilson, W. T. Williams, C. F. Sherrill, W. E. Judkins, E. P. Parham, R. H. Mullen, J. R. Griffith, F. M. Butts. To-night Rev. John M. Burton preached the opening sermon from Matthew, 25th chapter 21st verse; "Well done, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord," to a crowded house. He discussed in an able crowded house. He discussed in an able manner—lst, what does "well done" mean? 2d, what is the "Master's joy?" 3d, how "well done" gives entrance into Sacrament followed. memorial from the West Virginia ference created a brief but very spirited discussion. The memorial is in regard to the Calvin legacy, left the Church by a citizen of West Virginia, and it prays this Conference to join in an effort to have distribution of the fund arising from this legacy changed so that West Virginia will get all or the larger share of it, etc., it being claimed that as such action would violate the terms of a dead man's will, it would be illegal, if not immoral. A notion to lay the memorial on the table Finally it was referred to the joint board of finance

The statement of the general committee on Church Extension shows that the Church Extension fund of the General Conference this year amounts to $702.42.15 At 1:30 the Conference took an adjournment until 9:30 to-morrow morning.

REMOVED THE WRONG EYE.

A Surgeon's Mistake Which Deprived a Norfolk Man of His Sight. NORFOLK, VA., Nov 22. - Special. -

About two weeks ago a young man employed in the shops of the Scaboard railroad, in Portsmouth, while at work was struck in the eye by a small piece of sicel, and the ball was very badly cut. The sight was entirely destroyed and he was advised to visit an occulist in Railtimore to have the eye taken out. He did so and after an examination the physician stated that the best he could do would be to furnish him a glass eye. He was put under the influence of drugs and the work commenced. After the effect of the drug passed off, the young man awakened to learn that he was stone blind. The doctor had cut out the wrong eye. The unfortunate mechanic had been married only four weeks, and his young and beautiful wife is pros The Democrats of Norfolk had a great surprise to-day, and there are hundreds of the workers of the party indignant. Some months ago H. Swartout, a Republi an captain of the watch at the Norfolk navy yard, was removed and Joseph Miano, a Democrat, appointed to till the vacancy. Swartout was removed to make room for Miano. Yesterday Miano was removed and Swartout was put back in his old place. Why Miano's head was cut off is not known. If for cause, the party leaders here say a Democrat should have been given the position.

The Democrats of the Norfolk district

The Democrats of the Norfolk district up to this time have not secured an important position in the yard. The Democratic mechanics are out of work, while nearly 1,500 Republicans, nearly all of them negroes, and many of them Thensive partisans, have good paying jobs at the yard. This state of affairs caused much dissatisfaction before the election, and if the contest had been a national one, the Republicans would have swept the county. Republicans would have swept the county. The business of the Corporation Court of this city has become so great as make It imperative to divide and create another

The lawyers will ask that there be created a criminal court with a motion docket and a chancery court with common law jurisdiction, ooth courts to have probate jurisdiction. The salary of the judges will probably be about $5,00 each. There are a number of candidates for these positions, among them Thomas H. Willook, the Commonwealth's Attorney, for the criminal judgeship; John M. Jenkens, a young lawyer of ability, and Hon. R. W. Mallett will be pressed for Neily, the leading criminal lawyer of the Norfolk bar and one of its best lawyers, will be presented to the Legislature as a candidate for one of these judgeships.

FOUR RIOTERS FOUND GUILTY.

James G. Elchardson Convicted of a Misdemeanor and Fined $100 and Jailed. ROANOKE, VA., Nov. 22.-Special .-The jury this afternoon rendered a verdict in the case of James G. Richardson, A. Perry, Dan D. Kennedy, and S. W. Fuqua, rioters indicted for misdemeanor. Richardson was found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and thirty days' confinement in jail, and Kennedy and Fuqua each to pay $1 and one day in jail. Perry was acquitted.

A Son Receives a Pistol Ball in the Temple_Prospective Weddings.

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., Nov. 22-Special .- Mr. John H. Bullock, of this county, and Miss Annette B. Bosson, of Louisa county, were married yesterday at the home of the bride.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Nellie Gray Eubank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Eubank. of this county, to Mr. Edward H. Cattell The ceremony will take place at Massaponax church Tuesday evening, November 28th, at 5:30 o'clock. Monday, while Mr. Ira Clark was cleaning a pistol near Massaponax church, in this county, it was accidentally discharged, the ball penetrating the temple of Stephen Farmer, son of Mr. Robert Far-mer, who was standing near. The builet imbedded itself in the skull, and the doctor thought it unwise to attempt to ex-tract it. Hopes are entertained of the young man's recovery, but his condition s very serious.

ROANOKE'S SHOWING, New Buildings Erected During the Past

Year-Decrease in Population. ROANOKE, VA., Nov. 22.-Special.-Colonel A. E. Sholes has completed the 1893

'04 directory and census of the city of Roanoke. It shows that 435 new buildings were erected during the past year, that there are 3,504 dwellings, with 533 vacant houses. The directory of last year con-tains 9,432 names of citizens, and the present volume 7,563. Last year the popu-lation was 23,228; this year 19,610, as against 16,470 when the United States cen sus was taken.

A noticeable feature of the exhibit, however, is that the reduction of population has been in a much larger proportion colored than white.

His Name Supposed to Be Kennedy, and May Be a Retired Naval Officer.

STAUNTON, VA., Nov. 22.-Special .-The man who three times jumped from the running trains of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad without sustaining any injury has been ascertained to be Andrew Kennedy, who has relatives in St. Louis, Mo. His relatives were found by papers on Kennedy's person when he was arrested here. His brother wired the authorities to send him on to New York, but on account of the condition of his mind, the railroad declined to receive him.

It is said that Kennedy is a retired naval officer. He has seen service some-where, and has traveled very much. His brother will be here in the morning to take charge of him.

North Da ville Asks for a City Charter-Close Call, But She'll Get In.

DANVILLE, VA., Nov. 22.-Special.-The idea of annexing North Danville to Danville having been practically abandoned, North Danville will probaby apply to the Legislature for a city charter and a separate court under the law which makes a city of every town containing 5,000 inhabitants. With this object in view, a special but somewhat informal census has been taken, which gives the town a population of 4,078. The completion of the additions to the Everside letion of the additions to the Riversic otton Mills, now under construction, vill bring something near two thousand more people to North Danville, as operatives in the mills, and their families,

WAR ON THE RIFFS.

The Convicts at Melilla Show Themselves Brave Men-Traitors Exposed.

LONDON, Nov. 22 .- A dispatch via Malthe United Press representative at Melilla, bearing date of Monday evening says that a hurricane had prevail-ed there for two days. The weather was so severe that it compelled a cessation of rk at the forts that are being construct ed by the Spaniards. The tents occupied by the troops and workmen were blown down and the camps were inundated by the floods that poured down the moun-

The mail steamer for Malaga was ferred to put back to Melitia and remain for forty-eight hours. Notwithstanding the severity of the storm skirmishing proceeded between the Spanish forces and the Riffs. During the lighting two Spanthe camp.

Bravery of Convicts.

The hand of thirty convicts under command of Captain Ariza, who have hereto-fore done excellent work in fighting the Riffs, continue to make trouble for the enemy. Every night they make sorties from Melilla and carry provisions to the outlying forts. The Riffs lie in wait for them, but the convict band nearly every night choose a new route and when the enemy discover them there is no time for the Riffs to gather in force to attack them. Sometimes the convicts go on hunts for the Riffs and kill some of them. The convicts are proving themselves ex-perts in this guerrilla warfare, and are becoming a terror to the Riffs.

On Monday last the convicts er countered a large body of Riffs. The former were ordered to charge upon them, and obeyed without hesitation. With fixed bayonets they rushed upon the Rillians under nets they rushed upon the Riffians under a heavy fire and put them to flight. One convict was killed and two wounded. The bravery of this band is highly praised by the military authorities, and it is gen-

After the storm had subsided, the general operations became more brisk. Ar-tillery was placed in the new redoubt on the hill Santiago, which dominates the Frajana valley. It is believed that an advance will be made this week upon the enemy's trenches and beyond. The plan seems to be to have three battal-ions protected by artillery and guerrillaions protected by artillery and guerrillas attempt an advance upon Riff territory, and there encamp to protect the forces employed in the construction of the fort at Sadi Guariach. Traitors in Melilla.

The fact that certain persons in Melilla are giving aid to the enemy is bitterly commented upon by those who have to do the fighting. A court-martial was held on Saturday to try some of these offenders. Twelve Spaniards, in whose houses rifles that were intended for the Riffs were found, were each sentenced to six years' penal servitude.

On Monday afternoon the Rifflans sent an envoy to General Macaias, the Spanish commander. An interview was granted and the chief declared that the Riffs were ready for peace. He had already, he added, compelled a portion of the Riffs to cease fighting. He an-nounced that Muley Aranf, brother of the Sultan of Morocco, who, with a company of cavalry, is encamped with-in four hours of the Spanish lines, had resolved to send 300 rebels to Melilia as prisoners, to be punished as the Spaniards plensed. Muley Aranf, he added, would come to Meilila on Wednesday. In conclusion, he asked that a truce

General Macias distrusted the envoys, and refused to grant their request.

Senor Reparaz, a member of the Geographical Society, has issued a pamphiet in which he maintains that the best policy for Spain to pursue concerning Morocco is to adhere to the powers supporting the status quo. Tangier, he says, would be invaluable to England as assisting to preserve the key of the Mediterranean. It took France, he further says, fifty years to effect the contents of the says of the says, fifty years to effect the contents of the says of the says, fifty years to effect the conther says, fifty years to effect the con-quest of Algeria and it cost her 100,000 soldiers and $60,000,000.
